

PACIFIC SCHOOL GAMES – NORTH SHORE SWIMMERS

Swimmers from Willoughby, Lane Cove and Knox Pymble swimming clubs will compete in the Pacific School Games in Canberra from 30 November to 6 December 2008. The games include swimming, diving, track and field, basketball and hockey. Each Australian State and Territory sends a team to the competition which also includes teams from 34 countries.

Northern Shore residents will be keen to watch Lane Cove's Phil Butcher (17), Knox Pymble's Christopher Lim (13), Benjamin Whitely (14) and Paul Van Westling (12) as well as Willoughby's Emma Morgan (12) and Christopher Dywer (11).

"This is a prestigious international competition" said Graeme Johnson President of Northern Suburbs Swimming Association. "The swimmers have succeeded through their different school based competitions over 2008 to be selected."

"Our North Shore Swimming Clubs have provided the rigorous preparation for this major event which is held every three or four years and we wish them well."
